FINANCIAL QUESTIONNAIRE

We ask many personal questions in this section that some people may consider private and not wish to answer. You may choose not to answer these questions, but if you do so, you will not be considered for a KISC scholarship. There is limited money available for scholarships which are granted based on need compared to other students within the KISC community. These questions allow us to make judgments about the relative need.

Family Income

Father's total annual Income from all sources last year
Mother's total annual Income from all sources last year:
Annual Tax Statement Provided?	Yes / No
Other support received for children's education last year:
Other support received for housing last year:
Other support received for family expenses last year:
Do you expect these figures to be significantly different this year?

Family Wealth

It is expected that people with significant assets will be willing to convert some of those assets to cash in order to pay for their children's education at KISC before applying for scholarships from KISC. The questions apply to assets owned by either parent or by one of their children.

What assets or other accumulated wealth do you have?

Houses (How many/location/size/value)
Land (Location/size/value)
Other property (How many/location/size/value)

Did you take a family trip outside of Nepal last year? If so, please give brief description

Do you have unusual expenses this year which would indicate an increased need for a scholarship this year?

_____

Comment:

Funds for scholarships at KISC come from the fees that are paid by other students. Please explain here or on a separate sheet of paper why you feel that under these circumstances your child should receive a scholarship from KISC.
